

CRIMINAL JUSTICE CLUB APPLICATION

Mission Statement: The mission of the Criminal Justice Club is to create an opportunity for students to learn about the criminal justice profession and those impacted by the criminal justice system. Congruent with the Jesuit tradition, the club emphasizes the importance of education to aid in professional formation of Seattle University students through professional workshops on campus and by participating in and attending a national conference in criminal justice each spring. Upholding another Jesuit value, the club aids those affected by the criminal justice system through numerous community service projects throughout the year. Finally, the Criminal Justice Club holds a meeting each month offering Seattle University Students an opportunity for those with similar interests to meet.

- One time club enrollment fee of $20.
 - Make checks payable to CJ Club
- Must be a Seattle University Student.
